Commodore's Log

Our Commodore has asked the team to fill in for him... and so: ...we have lots of photos!

Lagier's Boat & Social Schmooze

Ahh! A fine time was had at the Lagier's...

While forming the last issue of the Signal, things got confused by the AIG bailout and so the photos of this event were inextricably misplaced.

Fleet Captain's Report

The February 21st cruise-out was to Sierra Pt. YC. Paul and I left Marina Bay on LA DOLCE VITA at about 7 AM. The trip over was easy and arrived at about 10. High tide was at 9:45 AM. We were met by a friend who is a member at Sierra Pt. YC and we went into Brisbane for lunch

Also Sailed: Mike and Janice Tryon on WINDLOCK and Jeff and Beth Easterling on BARCAROLLE and Land Yacht (Pretend) Sailors: Barry Eldridge and Judy Murray.

The Sierra Pt. Club had a wonderful meal for us of BBQ steaks and all that went with them. The hors d'oeuvres were enough to make a meal.

In that we were cooking Cioppino Dinner for 40 people, the March 7th Cruise-out was to Pt. San Pablo YC.

We had a great time and agreed that Sierra Pt. is a great club for Cruise-outs.

Paul and I didn't even take our boat out of the slip, as we are also members at this club.

Jeff and Beth Easterling were the only couple to make that trip from Marina Bay. The PSPYC is a fun club to visit.

April 18th Cruise-out is to the Alameda Yacht Club for the Western Dinner/Dance. I'll send out more details later this month.

Happy boating,

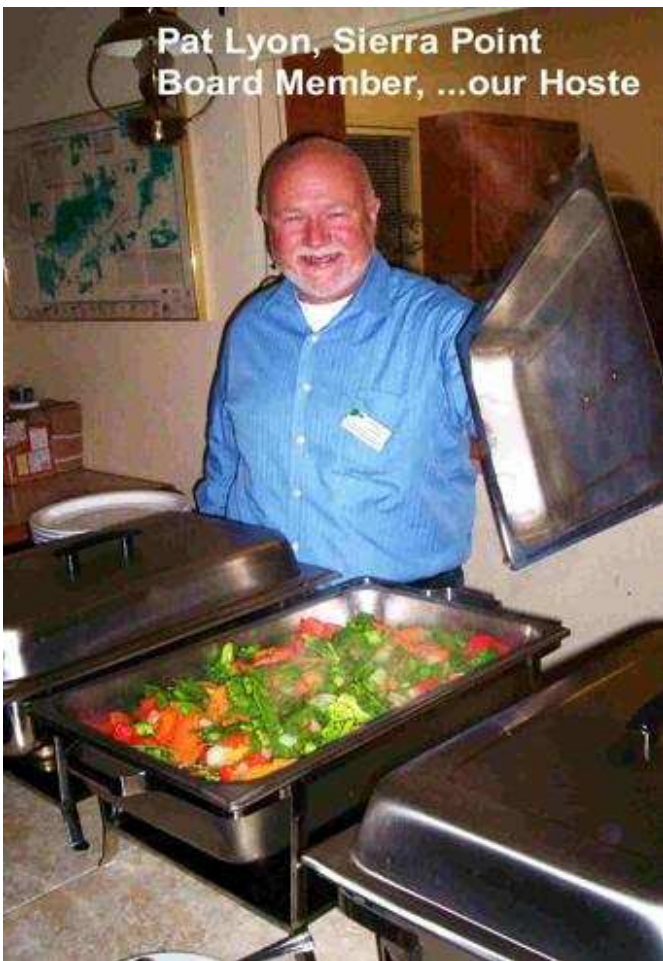

Earlene Lagier
Fleet Captain, MBYC

Pat Lyon, Sierra Point Board Member, ...our Host

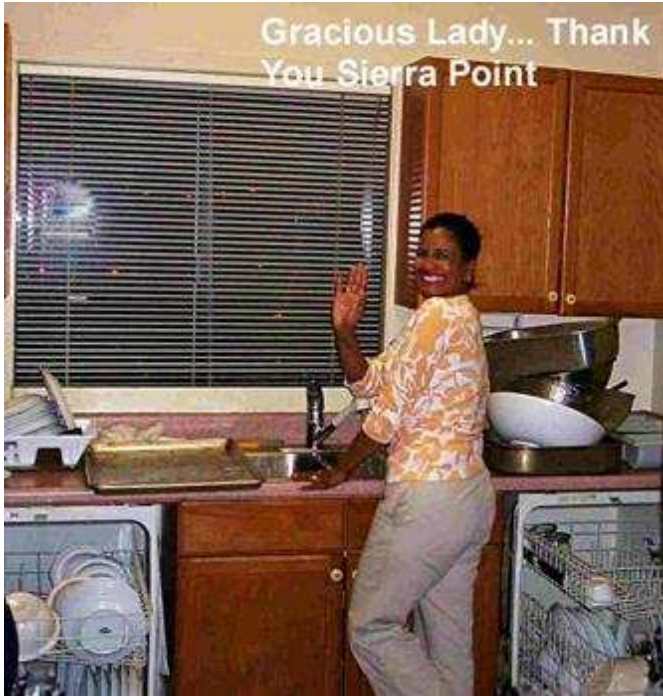

Adding to the confusion, The Board decided to publish the Signal and hold a Board Meeting every other month. But the Board didn't meet in March... and as you can see, we are late with the Signal. We'll make up for this on April 18th in Alameda. Thank you for your understanding...
